About the Breeder

Vom Hause Stan is a professional breeder dealing with purebred and healthy Rottweiler puppies. Whether it's Sires or Dires, we have everything for our customers. We use professional breeding techniques under natural conditions to ensure our puppies are healthy. Breeding isn't an easy process, and it's also time-consuming. We are an organization that provides the right environment for healthy breeding by following all the steps without fail.

We Care For Our Puppies

To ensure the well-being of our puppies, we have dedicated veterinary. Our veterinary keeps the little puppies clean, warm, and fed. We are aware of diseases and treatment methods for Rottweilers and help our customers by providing the right and effective information and resources. All our puppies have a loyal and loving nature. They can be your family pet, hiking partner, guard dog, etc., with the right training and guidance. The veterinarians at Vom Hause Stan keep the puppies' health in check by providing them with proper nutritional food and early skills training. Our experts examine, evaluate and perform all the health check-ups before breeding. To keep the puppies healthy and active, we follow proper measures of providing the right diet, training, and health check-ups.

We Provide Best Rottweiler puppy for sale in Kent WA

Vom Hause Stan expert breeders Marian Stan and Othilia have more than ten years of breeding experience. With this one decade of experience, they understand every nature of Rottweilers. In this process, they met all types of breeders and Rottweilers, which motivated them to start their own breeding facility. Connecting with Kleeket LLC gives you a proper partner for your new family member. We have experienced trainers and veterinaries that will help your new adopted puppy with best practices. Adopt a puppy today to add a new paw member to your family. You can register with our organization to receive tips and services related to nurturing your dog for all stages of its life.
